Hello, Nanda

How have you been? I hope you are alright, I just came home from Liverpool! Yes, the city I had always wanted to visit. I was so happy because finally my childhood dream came true last week . Honestly, so far, my body might already in Indonesia but not with my mind haha .. I remember a moment in the morning, when I woke up in one of the hotels in the city of Liverpool, enjoying a cup of warm coffee in the typical cold weather of Europe, I couldn't wait to visit several best destinations such as Liverpool Cathedral, The Beatles Story, Cavern Club, Royal Albert Dock Liverpool, St. George's Hall Liverpool, Abbey Road, and most importantly Anfield! You do not forget I'm a big fan of Liverpool FC right?

On the first day, I visited three destinations at once, Royal Albert Dock, St. George's Hall and Liverpool Cathedral. It was such a tiring day, but seeing the magnificence of Liverpool Cathedral, its comfortable walking along the river, I was satisfied visiting places that I usually see on the internet. The second day, I visited Cavern Club, The Beatles Story and Abbey Road, on that day I specifically visited the destination of the legendary band of Liverpool ...The Beatles, I learned a lot of things here, got to know more about the Beatles and believe it or not, I accidentally visited John Lennon's residence unknowingly, seriously, don't ask me why! The third day, this was the climax, I visited Anfield. Home of the giant English football club, home of the football club the city's best, the mecca of millions of Liverpool fans all over world. Honestly, back then ... I cried, I really dreamed the times when I would visit this place besides Mecca and Tokyo. I was so emotional that day. While walking around Anfield, looking at every corner of the stadium, The Kenny Dalglish Stand and The Kop, I visited the inside of LFC museum, bought merchandise and entered the stadium, entered the player's dressing room, took some pictures in the 'Walk of Champions' corridor and touched the 'This is Anfield' mark, even for a second, a moment like this will never forgotten in a lifetime. Up until I sat on one of the stands, staring at Anfield, no words coming out, unconsciously I was singing the chant fans usually sing before the match started ..

When you walk through a storm

Hold your head up high

And don't be afraid of the dark

At the end of a storm

There's a golden sky

And the sweet silver song of a lark

Walk on through the wind

Walk on through the rain

Though your dreams be tossed and blown

Walk on, walk on

With hope in your heart

And you'll never walk alone

You'll never walk alone

Walk on, walk on

With hope in your heart

And you'll never walk alone

You'll never walk alone

After sung it, I cried again, subconsciously ... to the point I realized I was such a crybaby hahaha .. that's a wrap for my first letter, in the next time I will tell you how I met a lot of new people there and I would talked a lot about the city that full of history. See you later..

PS

If there is another chance, I want to visit the city again with you, are you ready? ^^
